The Opportunity

1

Airlines rebound post-pandemic, boosting MRO demand. We witnessed a substantial surge in order volume, marking an exciting phase for our team.

NNR Global Logistics embraced the wave, showcasing smooth landing gear transit.

The Challenge 2

NNR Global Logistics faced a dual challenge: efficiently transporting aircraft landing gear and meeting demanding lead time requirements.

We took on these challenges head-on.

The Solution

Efficiency Enhancement:

Navigating the intricate path of aircraft landing gear transportation requires maximum efficiency.

NNR's collaborative skills were activated! NNR's China and Japan offices collaborated closely, crafting a logistics masterpiece.

The solution? A precision-driven plan to optimise efficiency and comply with the specific requirements of Naha Airport's restricted areas.

The Solution

Efficacy Excellence:

Our customer mandated a 72-hour door-to-door lead time, throwing a time-sensitive curveball into the mix. The standard delivery timeline is three days, with an extra 1-2 working days for special area deliveries.

At NNR Global Logistics, we believe in leaving no room for delays. By engaging in proactive communication, we minimised the risk of delays and ensured the timely completion of all necessary tasks. Our commitment to excellence and foresight allowed us to meet the demanding 72-hour lead time requirement set by our customer.

The Result

4

We streamlined operations that navigated through restrictions effortlessly.

NNR's collaborative ingenuity not only met but exceeded the efficiency bar, showcasing the commitment to excellence.

Through meticulous planning and proactive communication, NNR achieved the three-day delivery goal with special delivery requirements.

Professional services, customs expertise, and ground coordination garnered unanimous praise from the customer.
